

OLYMPIC NEWS IS NOW ONSITE NEWS!!!!

Customers first got to know us as Olympic News – a source for high quality news and specialty retail products. Now we're proud to announce that we're changing our name to better describe who we are, and where customers can find us. Meet ONSITE NEWS!

So what's different? ONSITE NEWS is where our customers are, with what they want. With added locations, we offer an expanded collection of news and entertainment sources, as well as distinctive gifts and products designed to fit busy lifestyles.

What hasn't changed? Service that is efficient, responsive and courteous coupled with the competitive pricing that customers have come to expect. The company's top leadership and management also remain unchanged. According to founder and company President, Sandy A.
